Job Opportunity-Maryland State Staff Position

From Patricia Tyler (MD):

We are seeking qualified adult education professionals to join our Adult Instructional Services team at DLLR.

The available positions are titled Education Program Specialist I. The Specialists provide statewide leadership for the Consolidated Adult Education and Family Literacy instructional grant program. This includes identifying innovative practices for program improvement, providing technical assistance to the grantee network, monitoring funded programs, and coordinating statewide and pilot initiatives. Individuals selected for the positions will work closely with the dynamic, highly experienced Adult Instructional Services team in the Division of Workforce Development and Adult Learning at 1100 North Eutaw Street in Baltimore.

Please share this announcement with qualified individuals who may be interested:
