Are You Interested?

Are you interested in devoting a few hours to helping design 2012 professional development activities?

1. The April 1 & 2 PreConference to the OAVE State Directors' Meeting in DC, and/or
2. Our November National Training Institute (NTI) for state directors and state staff.

You will remember the 2011 OVAE Preconference planning group brought together all of the test publishers to discuss how they were approaching the Common Core. The session was a unique opportunity to hear from all the publishers at once and get answers to your questions.

The NTI is a two and a half day training and technical assistance institute in November with in-depth discussions and resource sharing to help you address major initiatives in your future.

Planning these sessions is a great opportunity to shape the resources you need to do your complex work.

To help design one or both of these upcoming events, contact the NAEPDC Professional Development Chair, Randy Whitfield (NC) at whitfieldr@nccommunitycolleges.edu or give her a call at 919.807.7132
