Colleague Question--ePortfolios

Kate Nicolet (VT) needs your assistance. If you can help, please reply to Kate directly at Kate.nicolet@state.vt.us (Do not 'reply to all') Thanks.

Greetings from Vermont,

I am investigating options for electronic portfolios for adult education staff and students, and if you currently use a particular type of ePortfolio, I would be interested in hearing the name of it and if possible seeing an example of one in use. For example, I am aware that Moodle, Google sites, and Blackboard have ePortfolio functions or can be configured in such a way. Are you using an ePortfolio "brand" that you like? Please let me know directly. Thanks in advance.
