New Online Resource for Professional Development: Adult Education Degree and Credentialing Programs Portal

The following message from COABE announces the upcoming launch of a new online resource for locating university programs in adult education.

In celebration of National Adult Education & Family Literacy Week and Literacy Month, COABE and its partners are pleased to announce a new resource coming to you soon, the new Adult Education Degree and Credentialing Programs Portal. Many adult educators seek courses and higher education degrees in adult education. However, little has been known about which higher education institutions offer these courses specific to our field. With over 400 unique listings, this Portal is an interactive, one-stop online resource connecting you to higher education degree programs in our field that best meet your professional learning needs.

The Portal will allow you to:

- <!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Easily find program information on higher education degree programs in adult education across the country
- <!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Weigh important considerations when choosing the best program fit for you
- <!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Enable you to write and publish reviews of your higher education degree program, like one would review a book on Amazon.com
- <!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Learn more about featured programs and interact with guest bloggers from these programs
- <!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Use social media to share program information with your professional learning networks

Degree program coordinators can add and update information about their program offerings and participate as guest bloggers on topics of interest to adult education practitioners.

Join these guest bloggers upon launch of the Portal to discuss this fall's featured programs:

- <!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Jim Berger, Ph.D., Acting Associate Dean, Graduate Studies and Research, Associate Professor of Adult Education at Western Kentucky University
- <!--[if !supportLists]--> <!--[endif]-->Bob Hughes, Ed.D., Interim Dean of the College of Education, Associate Professor of Adult Education at Seattle University

This initiative is developed in partnership with TESOL International Association, the American Institutes for Research, the American Association for Adult and Continuing Education, the National Adult Educational Professional Development Consortium, and the Coalition of Lifelong Learning Organizations and is generously funded by the Dollar General Literacy Foundation.
