Welcome Jeff Carter

We want to welcome a long-time colleague, Jeff Carter as the new NAEPDC/NCSDAE Government Relations Consultant. For the past two years Jeff has been an independent planning, policy and advocacy consultant offering an array of policy analysis, writing/editing, and government relations services here in Washington.

His experience includes Director of Policy and Government Affairs for ProLiteracy, Executive Director of DC Learns (a city wide literacy coalition), Education Technology Director for World Education in Boston, and writer/editor in education technology.

He has a JD from Suffolk University Law School in Boston, a BA cum laude from Providence (RI) College and he has studied at the University of London.

Jeff has been a valued colleague for over ten years and has excellent contacts and respect throughout Washington. We are so pleased that he has agreed to join our government relations team.

You can reach Jeff at jeffcrt@gmail.com
