NTI 2013 Resources

The NAEPDC/NCSDAE 2013 National Training Institute in Charleston, SC focused on states moving to college and career readiness standards (either the National Adult Education College and Career Standards, the Common Core State Standard, or a state's own standards).

Resources included:

- A state self-assessment to determine a state's readiness to move to or upgrade standards
- A set of decision points states could consider in moving to higher standards accompanied by strategies states have found successful for each
- The talking points from a number of colleagues who shared their experiences and
- A planning document for states to use in laying out the movement to standards over the next two to three years.

All of these resources are on the NAEPDC website at:

http://naepdc.org/professional_development/NTI_home/NTI.html

One hundred and eight of your colleagues attended the NTI and contributed to the discussions and the learning.

Kudos to the South Carolina State Staff for their gracious hospitality, their management of registration and their support throughout the NTI.

Kudos to the Professional Development Committee for planning such a resourceful institute:

Randy Whitfield (NC), Chair, Cindy Zengler (OH), David Stout (SC), Debra Varner (WV), Jacqueline Korengel (KY), Jay Brooks (IL), Joanie Rethlake (TX), Margaret Kirkpatrick (CO), Marsha Taylor (AR), Reecie Stagnolia (KY), Sandy Crist (MS)
