Two Preparations for Next Week's Institute

To prepare the teams you are sending to the National College and Career Readiness Training Design Institute next week in Louisville, we have prepared two discussion documents for your staff and your team.

Go to <http://clee.utk.edu/ccrtedi/> and download:

State Self-Assessment – Standards Based Instruction
State Self-Assessment – New High School Equivalency Tests

Have a discussion with your staff and team prior to the institute next week so your team is clear on where you are and where you want to go.

Keep up the good work. Let me know when we can help.
