GED ® Closeout Tools

The GED ® Testing Service has a campaign called “Your Future is Calling” to raise awareness that the current version of the GED ® test is expiring at the end of this year (along with any unfinished test scores). The goal is to connect current GED ® test-takers with resources to help them complete the test this year so they don’t have to start over again.

To help spread the word about the test closeout, they have a variety of customizable templates, handouts, and downloads – a partial list is below. All of the materials are free and ready to use.

- Downloadable tools for educators, like message and outreach guides (www.gedtesting.com/educators/closeout)
- Informational materials for test-takers, like posters, customizable flyers, and buttons (www.gedtesting.com/educators/brandcentralinfo)
- A web page for test-takers to find their local GED ® testing centers and test policies (www.finishtheged.com)
- Email and text reminders for test-takers (people can sign up for alerts on the web page above)
- Email updates for educators and community leaders (www.gedtesting.com/jointhecampaign)
