Small State Roundtable

Are you a state director in a small state with few staff?

If so, we invite you to join at Small State Roundtable to share strategies and options for professional development, financial management, securing data services, local program monitoring and the myriad of other functions required of your state office even though you have few staff to help.

If you are interested in participating in The Small State Roundtable, email the Moderator, Marcia Hess at marcia.hess@wyo.gov

The Roundtable is one component of the State Staff Support priority in the new NAEPDC 2013-2015 Plan of Work.
