Colleague Question –Burning Glass

Valerie Fischer (ND) writes:

I'm wondering if you have any familiarity with Burning Glass? Two websites are: <http://www.burning-glass.com/products/laborinsight-market-analysis/> and <http://www.burning-glass.com/realtime/>. Given the quick change in business climate, this could be a valuable resource that could provide "newer" insight into the job market and labor skills needed to have a prepared workforce. Colleges have begun to use this to initiate new programs and services. I'm wondering if any other states or partners have used this and to what success? Don't want to invest in something without more information. Thanks for anything you can share.
